A Restaurant that I Visited

Four Seasons Restaurant is one of the most popular restaurants in the world. I went there with my parents for dinner last Friday.

Four Seasons Restaurant is famous for vegetable fried rice. My mother ordered siu mei and barbecued pork as starters. The food was delicious. My father ordered sweet and sour pork, vegetable fried rice and roast duck as main courses. They were juicy and fresh. We finished our dinner with some desserts. My sister and I ordered chocolate ice-cream. My Dad and Mum ordered mango pudding. They were sweet and fresh. In short, all the food was tasty and juicy.

We were surprised when we received the bill. The meal was really expensive. We paid $6000 for 4 people!

I will not visit this restaurant again because it is so expensive that I cannot afford it. I think the price is not reasonable because we had to pay $6000 for only seven dishes. However, the place is clean and beautiful. The waiters are polite, too. I would not recommend this restaurant to my friends or family because it is too expensive.
