A Restaurant that I Visited

Queen's Café is one of the most popular restaurants in Hong Kong.

Last Sunday, I went there with my family to celebrate my birthday.

The restaurant is especially famous for grilled beef. There are other kinds of dishes in the menu, like curry dishes and fried chicken. We ordered Ceasar salad as a starter. The salad dressing was tasty and the vegetables were fresh. We also ordered grilled beef as a main course because I love beef. The meat was juicy and tender and it tasted nice. Finally, we decided to finish our dinner with desserts. We ordered an ice-cream volcano. When the volcano was lit, it was amazing! It tasted wonderful. In short, all the food we ordered was delicious.

The dinner cost us $800. However, we thought the price was reasonable because the food was wonderful.

We will visit this restaurant again because the food is delicious and the price is reasonable. Furthermore, the waiters are polite and kind and the place is clean and beautifully decorated. I would recommend it to my friends.
