

Yim Ching Tung, Wendy (J. 4A)

A Restaurant that I Visited

7th December, 2009

Rainy

Pucca Restaurant is one of the best restaurants in Korea. I went there with my friends and family to celebrate my birthday.

The restaurant is especially famous for Korean noodles. The chef puts kimchi and meat in noodles. We ordered seafood salad as a starter. It was very fresh and juicy. My friend, Mimi, does not like vegetables, so, we ordered Korean barbecued meat and Korean noodles. The Korean barbecued meat contained some vegetables but it was delicious and tasty. The Korean noodles were wonderful. Both of us loved them. We also ordered orange jelly and chocolate ice-cream as desserts. They tasted nice and sweet. In short, all the food we ordered was delicious.

We had a big surprise when we received the bill. The food was really cheap. We only paid four hundred dollars for eight people.

I think we will visit this restaurant again because it is good. The food is tasty and the price is cheap. In addition, the place is clean and the waiters are polite. I would highly recommend this restaurant to my classmates.